The papers connected with the grant of leave to Mr. C. Lakshmana Rao are put-up (vide linked file). In notification dated 6th October 1933, he has been granted combined leave until the date of his superannuation in July 1934. The circumstances leading to this are summarised in the Finial note of First Member d. 12th October 1933. Mr. Lakshmana Rao went on leave from 12.10.33.

In the circumstances I have no objection to the ad promotion of Mr C. Lakshmana Rao being saved, though as a matter of principle when an officer is given leave compulsorily it should follow that his services are not considered to be approved & that he is not entitled to any promotion.

I don't see why he should get any promotion at all when he has been virtually retired from Service compulsorily.

Let it go to a more deserving person. Mr C.L. should be passed over, I think.
